Dec. 20, 1927.

Mr. & Mrs. Hardy R. Collier,
Goldthwaite, Texas.

My dear Cousins:

I am sending you by today's parcel post a package containing a pair of socks for Hardy, some Silk Bloomers for Hardy's wife, (these bloomers were made in our new Rayon Silk factory here at Barnesville) and a towel set for your Mother, Mrs. Issac G. Collier. Pardon me for not using your Mother's first name, but I haven't it in my mind just now and have not the time to refer to my files.

I trust that you will have a pleasant Christmas, and do not forget that the Georgia Colliers have not forgotten the Colliers out there, as the largest part of the Collier family is not in the Lone Star State; that is the descendants of Robert.

With sincere regards from all of us, I beg to remain

Yours most cordially,

JCC:S
